Samples of YADA House Students Art 2007-2008

You have been recommended by your teacher to apply for the opportunity to participate in the YADA House (Young Aspirations Discovering Art), a signature project of the Junior League of Mobile, Inc. You will be given the chance to work with an art teacher weekly and interact with other students to learn various art skills. You will learn to build your portfolio, have art shows, meet artists from our area and market your artwork to the community. The only requirements are that you are committed to attending the sessions and that you will provide your own transportation. The YADA House/Junior League of Mobile, Inc will provide everything else!

We look forward to reviewing your application and we will inform you of your acceptance into the program as soon as possible. We have space for 20 High School Students, so please respond quickly. Ask your art teacher to return this form or simply mail it to:
